The Fiji Dental Association has appointed a new president.

Dr Parish Naidu takes over from former president Dr Vikash Singh.

Dr Naidu runs the Shortlane Dental clinic in Nadi.

He graduated from the Fiji School of Medicine's School of Oral Health in 2003 top of his class where he received a gold medal and trophy for community dentistry.

Dr Naidu has a Postgraduate Certificate in Orthodontics and has special interest in dental implants.

Congratulating Dr Naidu at the association's 50th anniversary gala dinner on Saturday night, Major-General (Retired) President Jioji Konrote wished him well and referred to him as the 'new Captain of the Ship'.
